A toast to Mr. Skorker and Ms. Ross...

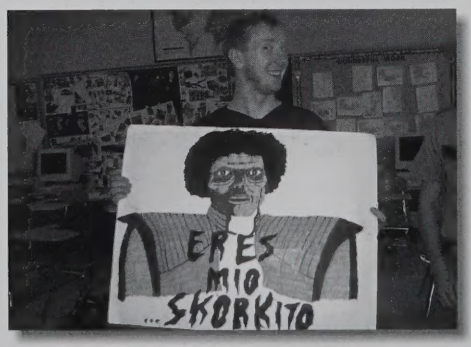

A few words from our officers...

"For the past four years, there have been two people that have been there through everything: Mr. Skorker and Ms. Ross. As class officers, we have seen first hand just how devoted they are to making sure that we have all enjoyed our high school years. This is our chance to say thank you for everything they have done for us. They helped us whenever we needed anything, though they were both busy with classes and everything else. We've gotten into disagreements, but we've learned the best ways to plan class events together, always having a good time and experiencing an opportunity for growth. So this is to Mr. Skorker and Ms. Ross for everything they've done, for allowing us to become such a big part of their lives and for becoming a huge part of ours. Some of our favorite high school memories have been spent in rooms C201 and C210, our second homes, with our second parents. "

Four years go by so fast. Our lives have changed so much between our first day as freshmen, fumbling with our lockers, to our final day as seniors when we close those lockers for the last time. One thing that never changed, though, was our class advisors, Mr. Skorker and Ms. Ross, and their commitment to our success. Not only were they our teachers, they were our leaders and our friends. They watched over us for the past four years, guided us when we were unsure, and always encouraged us to strive for the best. They organized our proms and our boat cruise, and made the annual Talent Show a fantastic success four years in a row. And in return for their long, tireless hours of dedication to the class of 2010, it is time for our class to dedicate something to them. We would like to dedicate this yearbook of 2010 to Mr. Skorker and Ms. Ross, and say thank you, because we couldn't have done it without them.

A Million Thanks To Our Senior Class Officers!

Class Officers 2010

The leadership within the student government has given our senior class more lasting memories than we ever thought possible with events such as junior prom, senior prom,the boat cruise, and the luau.

Little do each of us know just how much hard work, time, and effort our class officers put into their roles as leaders of our class. Kelly, Jimmy, Amanda, and Lindsey meet at least once each week with the help of Site Council Reps,

Student Council Reps, and our advisors Ms. Ross and Mr. Skorker to make decisions about the events we're lucky enough to attend. They manage our budget, secure our function halls, hire DJs, and have coordinated some of the best dances and fundraisers we could have ever imagined. Not only have they worked tirelessly for our class, but they have also taken into account our ideas and suggestions and helped make our four years at Medford High more than memorable. Thank you for all you efforts!

This year's seniors worked hard, played hard, and left their mark on Medford High School. With unparalled school spirit and their eyes set on the future, the 2010 seniors are unstoppable. This year was filled with memories that will last a lifetime.

We are legends.

"All we need to make us really happy is something to be enthusiastic about."
- Charles Kingsley

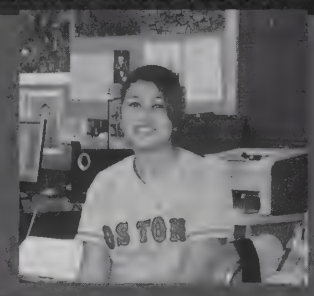

As time moves on, we can all look back at the memories we have made here in the halls of Medford High School. Over the past four years we have come to know and respect each other, and hopefully will take the lessons we have learned here and grow into strong, successful men and women. Congratulations 2010.

CLASS
OF 2010

Student Interviews

By Lindsey Mills

Cassie Ferragamo

1. My most memorable MHS experience would have to be Mr. Wilson's honors anatomy class 5th period junior year: great friends, funny jokes, lots of sleep and cat dissections...or AP Calculus this year. "Calculus is like a hamburger!"
2. In 10 years, I see myself either finishing up medical school and just starting to work in a hospital, doing something with little kids, or doing something with science.
3. What's unique about me is that I just try to be different. I try to outwardly express my opinions and stay true to myself.
4. My favorite quote would have to be "Life is like a bicycle, you don't fall off unless you stop pedaling." - Claude Pepper
5. Be yourself, and don't aim for money: strive for happiness. Doing something just for money doesn't solve anything. Doing something you enjoy, even though it may earn less money, makes it worth it.

Brendan Reardon

1. Although my favorite memories took place outside of MHS with my friends and the BCFM, there is most certainly one time which will always make me laugh. Mark, Anthony, and I were walking down the hallways toward the main lobby one day after school to pick up our food. Suddenly, little Anthony hysterically turned the corner and said, "Are you Brendan? Your food is here" and proceeded to dash down the hallway in his jacket. With us three in shock and awe with no idea on how to respond, Mark loudly said "OH MY GOD, is he from the future?" Good times.
2. In 10 years I see myself in space floating around. Nah. I'll worry about where I am in 10 years when it comes; take it a day at a time and live in the present.
3. I am very laid back, yet am full of things. I apply my extreme optimism to almost everything I do and attempt to encourage others to do the same. I assure you, if we get to know one another I'm sure you will not be disappointed.
4. My favorite quote is, "The only thing you can change about the past is the way you feel about it."
5. If you're even slightly interested in doing something, do it. Live life and take advantage of each and every day; you have no reason to be bored, the world is full of opportunity for crazy shenanigans. Be spontaneous. Do work.

Lauren O'Connor

1. My most memorable experience at MHS was being a part of the sports teams; it was an incredible experience like no other. I think everyone should be involved in something you meet people you would otherwise never talk to.
2. In ten years, I hope to see myself successful with a family. I don't exactly know doing what.
3. I am very sarcastic and I put my heart into everything I do.
4. "Unconventional beauty is the best kind of beauty" - Perks of Being a Wallflower.
5. Be an individual - it makes the world a more interesting place.

Kiley Callahan

1. I have too many great memories from highschool. PW, I love you. Mustang Golf, I'll miss you. All the yearbook staff, I thank you. I've made some of the best friends and the strongest relationships here, you are all unforgettable. Festivus, Electric Avenue, Thriller, Cape 08-09, & all of "those times", Sister Sister night, SBC, Gypsys & Blues Brothers, Blink, Rucking, and mad lovin'.
2. In 10 years I hope to be working in child psychiatry, starting a family, and traveling all over the world. Someday I'll see The Shins in concert, get a chocolate lab named Scout, and take tap dancing classes.
3. I love meeting new people and try to never take anything for granted. I love living life to the fullest a I'm just waiting for my peak experiences. Most of the time, I have no idea what I'm supposed to be doing, so I just wing it.
4. "Maybe some women aren't meant to be tamed. Maybe they just need to run free til they find someone just as wild to run with them."
5. Just Do It.

Aine Collins

1. My most memorable moment at MHS was being trapped in Mr. Contrada's room for the hour and a half lock down that we had sophomore year. We were able to entertain ourselves by playing periodic table of elements charades.
2. In ten years, I see myself traveling the world or making something of my life. I never want to stay in one place, but who knows, I could be wrong. I will cross that bridge when I come to it.
3. Something unique about me is that I'm extremely optimistic and hope to make other people around me happy. I'm sure I could make you laugh if you got to know me.
4. "Shoot for the moon and even if you miss you'll land upon the stars" - Les Brown
5. Don't let anyone get in the way of what you want to do. Its your future and it will be what you make it. 'Nuff said.

Kayla Huskard

1) Hearing Mr.Ross yell everyday at lunch for people to stay in the cafe, which never happens. Realizing you don't even need a pass to walk around. Having Mr.Richards as a homeroom teacher, and Dr.Hamlin's talking about 5 subjects in 5 minutes.
2)Being a geriatric nurse at Mass General making $$$, while working at Nat's bar on the side with Leah - our own Coyote Ugly.
3)You would think I'm completely different than what I am, because of my group of friends ;)
4)"Around here, however, we don't look backwards for very long. We keep moving forward, opening up new doors and doing new things, because we're curious...and curiosity keeps leading is down new paths."
5) Go after your dreams, and make them come true. You might leave here, but never forget where you came from.

1. What is your most memorable experience at MHS? 2. Where do you see yourself in ten years? 3. What is unique about you? 4. Your favorite quotes. 5. A message to your classmates.

Jimmy Nyguen

1. My most memorable memory at MHS was being a part of the class of 2010. I have had years I remember how truly influential my overall time as an MHS student. I'll remember the countless Talent Show rehearsals, the hardships of scooping ice cream, and how we have built a reputation that exceeds that of any other class. The class officer family is something I will never forget, specifically the Burger King runs, class officer outings, Senor Skorker's demands, and our success. Class 2010 every day all year every year.
2. In ten years, I see myself in another country, backpacking, exploring , and definitely eating. That and possibly serving the Peace Corps.
3. I am not the nicest guy nor the brightest, but I am defiantly honest and headstrong. People think it's funny.
4. "Desperate times call for desperate measures."
5. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder, so do what you like and like what you do. Do not let what others think deter you from trying something different. Rather use that as a reinforcement as to why to why you want to do it. I wish the best of luck to all my classmates!

Kate Froysa

1. My favorite memory of high school in general was meeting totally new people for the first time and just having a great time throughout my four years. I thought Junior Prom and Senior Boat Cruise were a lot of fun too.
2. First woman president! Or a Lawyer.
3. I love giraffes, I love to ski, and I love to do triathlons.
4. My favorite quote would have to be "If you're not living life on the edge, you're taking up too much space."
5. Did is a word of achievement, won't is a word of retreat, might is a word of bereavement, can't is a word of defeat, ought is a word of duty, try is a word each hour, will is a word of beauty, can is a word of power.

Mike Conway

1. The MHS Crew Team was my favorite experience!!!
2. I see myself teaching English at a high school in 10 years. I can't wait.
3. I love school and I love learning new things .
4. "Life moves pretty fast. if you you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it"- Ferris Bueller
5. The only thing you should shoot for is happiness. Money is great, but it won't always make you happy. If you make this your goal, you'll have a fantastic life!! Good luck, I hope everyone can make this their goal!!

Nima Jama

1) Too many! Being in all my clubs and after school activities, acting like fools with friends in school, the Senior Boat cruise, and participating in the Pep Rally.
2) In 10 years, I'll be 27. I see myself probably as a graduate from law school, working as some kind of lawyer. Possibly a family by then?
3) I think whats unique about me is that I can make friends easily and that I'm a really nice and understanding person. And oh yeah, I have like weird telepathy skills.
4) "Imperfection is beauty, madness is genius and it's better to be absolutely ridiculous than absolutely boring." - Marilyn Monroe
5) Good luck, work hard, have fun, and reach your dreams. :D

Brian Porreca

1. I will never forget to start my engines. You shouldn't either.
2. Walking the red carpet, I'll give you a shout out.
3. Every one of us is unique. We all have different hobbies, aspirations, and contributions to the world. What's unique about me is that I try to be unique all the time in everything I do.
4. "Float Like a Butterfly, Sting Like A Bee"
5. Start Your Engines. We're all going somewhere.

Jared Mello

1. My most memorable experience at MHS was being a part of the football team and being part of a family of brothers who will always share a special bond with each other now matter what we do or where we go in life. And let's not forget senior year, being the first class in over 15 years to have a successful season that brought pride back to the football team and laid the foundation to turn the program around.
2. 10 years from now, I can see myself with a family either working as an athletic trainer for a minor league or pro sports team, or running my own gym and working as a strength and conditioning coach.
3. Once I put a thought or goal in my head you can bet on the fact that I will see it through and give it my best effort. No matter the circumstance, If I want something to be done, I will see that I get it done to the best of my ability. You can knock me down 100 times, but you will never knock me out.
4. "Don't worry about the things you can't control" - Jon Lester
5. Make sure that whatever path you may choose to follow, it is the one that will make you the happiest. Don't let trivial issues get in your way, because they will always pass with time. Focus on what is in front of you and how you can better your own life and the lives of others around you. Good Luck Class of 2010! Let's go change the world!

this year was unforgettable.

We want to know!

What's the best thing about finally becoming a senior this year?

Lindsey Mills
"Senior year is a time when we all came together as a class. Over the four years of being at MHS, we have matured, but still know how to have fun at events such as boat cruise & homecoming"

Jaclyn Doherty
"Nobody cares what group you belong to anymore because we're all seniors and we're all looking to make the most out of our last year and just having as much fun as possible, and we're the perfect 10!"

Jill deRosas
"This year we've had more school spirit than ever and we definitely have all become closer because we realize its ending and we're all working towards the common college goal."

Mike Conway
"Everyone is applying to college, and it's something we all have in common. Everyone can relate to each other because of this, and help each other."

On Saturday, October 24, 300 excited students piled into the Medford High School main lobby. Girls in their dresses and boys in their ties, kids from all different grades came together to enjoy and night of dancing and singing to their favorite songs. Organized by the hard-working members of the Student Council and their advisor Mr. Cullen, homecoming this year featured an awesome club theme that included black lights, glow sticks, and DJ Luigi Disisto, a Medford High School graduate. One of the most memorable moments of the night was when the Girls' Varsity Soccer team challenged the Boys' Varsity team to a dance off. It's safe to say the girls won! The night ended with the crowning of Homecoming King Danny Gunn and Queen Angela Katehis. And in the last few minutes of the dance, the senior class huddled up for one last time swaying to "Sweet Caroline." Needless to say, it was an unforgettable night!

Special Thanks...

Homecoming this year wouldn't have been possible without the hard work of the members of the Student Council. Led by co-presidents Kerri Coughlin, Leah Farrell, and Natalie Breen, the committee sold 300 tickets and put on a spectacular dance!

Without a doubt, Student Council advisor Mr. Cullen did a fantastic job with all of the Spirit Week days and ended on a very high note with the homecoming dance.

You Know You Went to MHS When...

Remember all these funny quirks about our high school?

- You have to travel around the building for one of the 30 bathrooms that happens to be open during that period.
- The MHS colors are blue and white and there is a maroon wall in each classroom.
- There is a tiny, usually non-functioning window in each classroom.
- The air conditioning runs in the winter and the heat runs in the spring/summer.
- Gym "attire" requires only wearing sneakers.
- You have tried to find third floor A building.
- It's not just a lockdown. It's "lockdown MODE."
- People beep into the intercom and say absolutely nothing.
- Your headmaster lets you hit him in the face with a pie.
- Water fountains are caged in.
- You always dress in layers due to the fact that the temperature varies dramatically from room to room.
- There are two doors but unless they are both already open, everyone coming in and out decide to squeeze through one.

Boys' Varsity Soccer

"Do you want to be just another team or a part of history?"

The 2009 Mustang soccer team had to battle for a state tournament berth this season, but just narrowly missed their goal by two points. With the leadership of senior captains Ariel Lobo, Phil Petrides, Sergio Silva and Victor Silva, the Mustangs were able to amass a record that saw them fall short by just one win. Most importantly, however, the Mustangs were able become an inseperable family through endless nights of FIFA and the 1st Annual and unforgettable Mustang Soccer Ping Pong Championship.

The All-Stars:

After leading the Mustangs in both points and goals, the senior captain was selected as 1st team GBL All-Star.

"I couldn't have asked for a better senior year season. This is the closest team I've ever been a part of, and I know these girls aren't just my teammates. They're my friends. We gained a lot of respect this year and had a lot of fun doing it. We were great on the field, but better on the dance floor. I'll miss it. FSU, always."

"I've grown so close to this team over the past four years and I will miss these girls a lot. I've never placed so much trust in not just one person, but an entire team. We gained so much respect together, and I am so proud of everything we have accomplished."

"It was a great feeling to win the GBL for the first time in eighteen years. We had an unforgettable season and so many good times. We grew as a team and really learned to work together. So much of what we accomplished on the field was because of how close we are off the field. Thanks for a great season. I'll miss it."

Lauren Bandoian

"The girls on this team have made this season one to remember. Through the hardships and successes we've been through together, we became a family. I wouldn't trade anything in the world for what I have gained this year. GBL Champions! Love you girls!"

During the 2009 season the Mustang girls' soccer team made history by winning the GBL for the first time in 18 years. They wer undefeated in their league and finished their season 10-5-3 overa Throughout the season the girls gained a lot of respect for their hardwork, recieving countless articles in the Medford Transcript, multiple Boston Globe articles, and a High Five on the channel five news. The girls came together as a team with a lot of help from ne coach Rachel Perry. Perry completely turned the team around in just one season, and will continue to build a strong program. Alon with a great season, the girls had a lot of fun off the soccer field with dance parties in the locker room, team dinners, and beating the boys soccer team in a dance-off at homecoming. Mustangs Lead the Attack

This has been a year of many firsts for the Mustang Varisty Volleyball team. They started the season with a new leader, first-year coach Alice Beth Tierney, who made quite a few changes to the program. The team also elected four new senior captains. But the most exciting firsts came when the girls beat Cambridge for the first time in several years, and went on to win the GBL Cup for the first time in MHS history!

"This year we really came together as a team and proved what we can do."

Rebecca Luongo, 25

It was a memorable night as the Mustangs captured the Greater Boston League Cup for the first time in Medford High School history. The surprise opponent, Everett, was ready to battle it out, but the Mustangs came back, winning the first game. There was a brief moment of uncertainty when the second game went to Everett. But the girls came back again and took the third and fourth games to capture the title. It was an emotional night as the girls celebrated the win. The Mustangs fought hard against Peabody in the State Trials, but sadly lost a close match.

Medford Mustangs

The Mustangs were coming off a down year in '08, finishing 0-11 and dealing with multiple coaching changes. After a combined record of 3-30 since 2006, it seemed as if the team was going to be lost in the world of defeat for quite some time. Enter Rico Dello Iacono, the fifth coach in four years, and his experienced coaching staff. Right away a new attitude was instilled for the team and a flux of new players and players who had played in previous years had returned to rebuild the team.

The hard work began immediately with chalk talk sessions and conditioning practices during the winter. The team worked hard from March through pre-season camp in August. The Mustangs came flying out of the gate winning their first two games of the season, shocking the city. Due to several injuries to key players, they hit a rough patch going 1-4 in October, but rebounded in November. They achieved their first GBL win in 8 years after beating Somerville, and continued their GBL success by beating Cambridge. For the first time in nearly 10 years, the Mustangs posted 5 a win season.

Meet The Coach

Ray Dyer enjoyed his seventh year this year as head coach of the Varsity Golf Team. He generated so much interest in his program, that he was able to make a JV club team that practiced in the fall months. He did a great job and is a true leader for the program.

OUTstanding Athlete

Senior four-year veteran and two-year captain Stephen Aghiarian led the Mustangs to two successful seasons in the starting spot.

Aghiarian won the GBL title for the second consecutive year and finished shooting an 80 in the state tournament. He has high hopes for the future. Varsity Hockey

This year's team fought hard to remain a dominant team in the GBL. With a lot of holes to fill from the departure of the '08-'09 team, this year's team rose to the occasion and exceeded the expectations of many on their way to clinching another GBL title after finishing 5-1-0 against the other teams in the league. In addition to the GBL title, the boys earned a birth in the state tournament for the second consecutive season. Under the discipline of new coach Steve DeBenedictis, and hard work of the seniors and underclassmen, Medford's hockey team had another successful season.

Greg Wilson

Captain Greg Wilson led the team this year with his great attitude and leadership skills. He was one of the top scorers and led both on and off the ice.

Nick Squillaciotti

Captain Nick Squillaciotti was a key component to the 09-10 Mustang Hockey Team. Nick inspired his teammates with a fun-loving attitude.

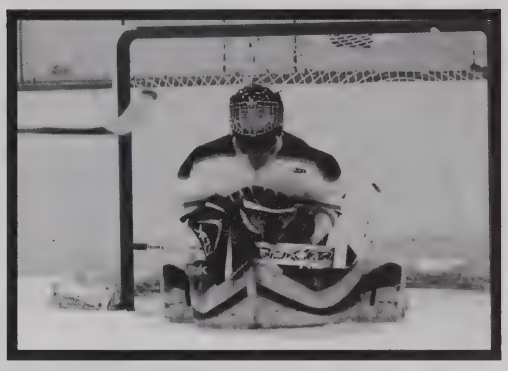

KYLE DORAN

Senior and Alternate Captain Kyle Doran worked hard to lead the defense for the team this year.

TOMMY LEE

Senior Tommy Lee solidified his dominance as a forward this year after scoring multiple goals and earning over 10 points.

Girls' Varsity Hockey

Captains

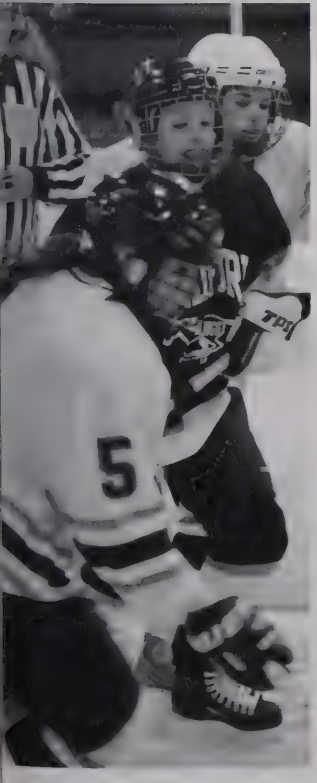

The MHS girls' hockey team finished the 2009-2010 season with feelings of great accomplishment. They managed to maintain their reputation as a competitive force in GBL League. The team was lead by Captains Chelsea Hanson, Jessyca Jaynes and Kristina Bove. The girls stayed strong as they headed off to the State Tournament in February.

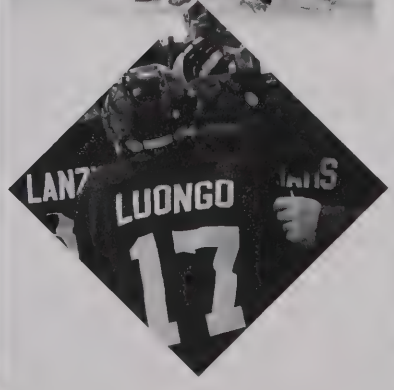

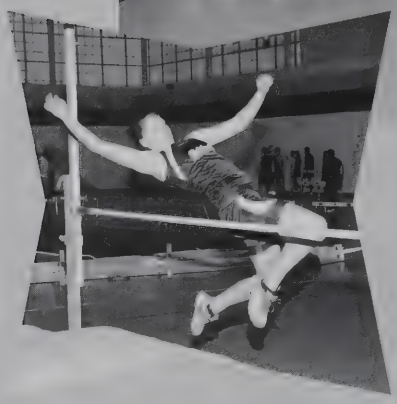

The boys' and girls' indoor track teams have both had successful seasons. The boys' team was led by junior sprinter Jean Perez and senior hurdler Reggie Otu-Quay. The girls' team was led by senior sprinter Jasmyn Hawkins and long distance runner Mackenzie Flynn. Both teams ran at state rally races at Reggie Lewis and won clutch meets against the other teams in the Greater Boston League.

Boys' Varsity Lacrosse

Coming off a 2009 season in which the boys missed the playoffs by one game, they were determined to achieve success in 2010. Under the guidance of new head coach Mike Engel, the Boys' lacrosse team was able to make great strides and learn new aspects of the game. Engel brought an impressive resume to Medford High: he was a head coach of Marion Catholic High School, a former All-American at Newton North High School, and the record holder for highest win percentage in face-offs and groundballs at Newton North. The team was able to use their new skills to continue improving and complete another successful season.

Is that my coach?!?!

Medford High was fortunate this year to have an assistant coach with professional experience. Nick Cotter was introduced to the team in the preseason and brought a new hype to the program. He was able to use his knowledge and experience to help the team blend their talents and tremendously improve their abilities.

Leadership SPOTLIGHT

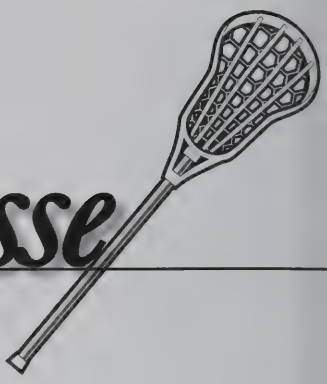

Senior captain and three-year starter, Jared Mello anchored the defense for the 2010 Mustangs Lacrosse team. He led his young defense and provided experience for the underclassmen.

Senior captain and four-year letterman, Steve Aghiarian led the offensive attack this year. He worked hard both on and off the field to set a good example for his team.

This season holds great potential and we are going far. If you don't believe, you don't belong.

Girls' Varsity Lacrosse

MHS 2010 girls' lacrosse team diligently practiced to become a successful interactive team. The young team was led by senior captains Lauren O'Connor, Mary Barber, and Francesca Alfonso. The three captains worked together to inspire their team. Coach Matt Galusi encouraged the entire team to put forth a tremendous amount of effort in order to achieve a successful season both on and off the field.

The 2010 Varsity Baseball team worked hard this season. With a team stacked with seniors, the boys enjoyed a successful three months on the field. With two-year captain Danny Gunn behind the plate and pitchers Danny Gilchrest and Al Krasco, the team was able to build upon a solid foundation. Overall, both the offense and defense this year were impressive.

Varsity Softball

Leadership SPOTLIGHT

"I really didn't know what to expect going into last season - we didn't know Mr. Dempsey and he didn't know us. As a team, we bonded together, worked extremely hard each and every day, and - being dealt what we were dealt last year - I couldn't have asked for anything more from them. I can't wait for this season to start so we can pick up the heart, blood, sweat and tears that were left on that field last season. I couldn't be more excited about what the future holds for the 2010 Varsity Softball team."
- Senior Nicole LoPilato

After the team was dealt a new coach, no one really knew what to expect. Coach Jack Dempsey stepped in as head coach in the 2009 varsity softball season. The Lady Mustang softball team bonded as a family, accepted Coach Dempsey, and together, they had a very successful first season. Looking at the 2010 season, everyone has extremely high spirits and expectations. After graduating five seniors, the softball team has a solid group returning, being led by three-year captain, senior Nicole LoPilato. Hopefully the team will find some key players in the large number of freshman and underclassmen coming into the program this year.

-Jimmy Nguyen '10

The team trains to be physically able to withstand several hours of straight play, strives to have the mental fortitude to win a five-set game, and is emotionally driven to be the best team in the GBL.

Talent Show

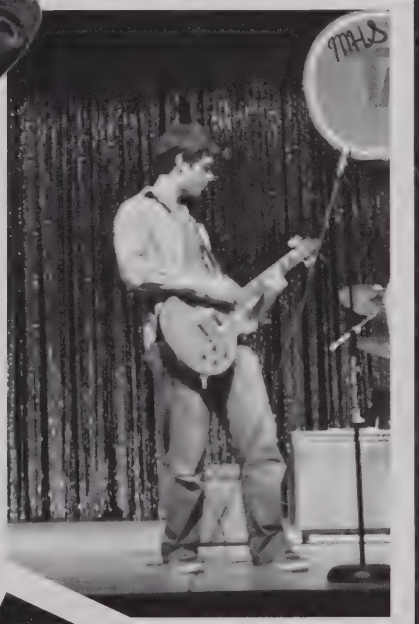

ADMIT ONE

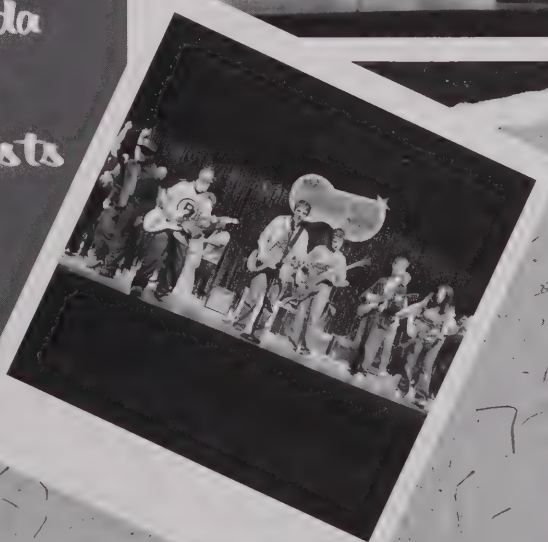

This year's talent show, put on by the senior class, was a huge success. The show ran two nights and proceeds from ticket sales went to MHS's Haitian Relief Fund. The talent show was hosted by Angela Katehis, Mark Ponte, and Brian Porreca. Some of the headliners included Furious George with Linda Morose, Gia Greene, Stevenson Clemond, and tons of musical artists and dance groups.
Great show everybody!

"The best part about being a twin is always having the support and help of each other."
-Forcier Twins

"We fight over who is better at sports, but it evens out most of the time. We're both good at sports in general, but we also each have our strengths in different sports and our weaknesses "
-Xanthopoulos Twins

"The best part of being a twin is the bond my brother and have between us. We finish each other's sentences and think the same things most of time. It's that twin telepathy and, yes, that twin telepathy definitely is real. We're never lonely because we've always got each other and we share many of the same interests. We're definitely best friends and the bond between twins is definitely a strong one. Being a twin may seem to some people to be a bad thing because people get you confused, however it is great to have someone you can relate to 100% and someone you can switch places with from time to time, and oh yeah... w definitely switch"
-Ridge Twins

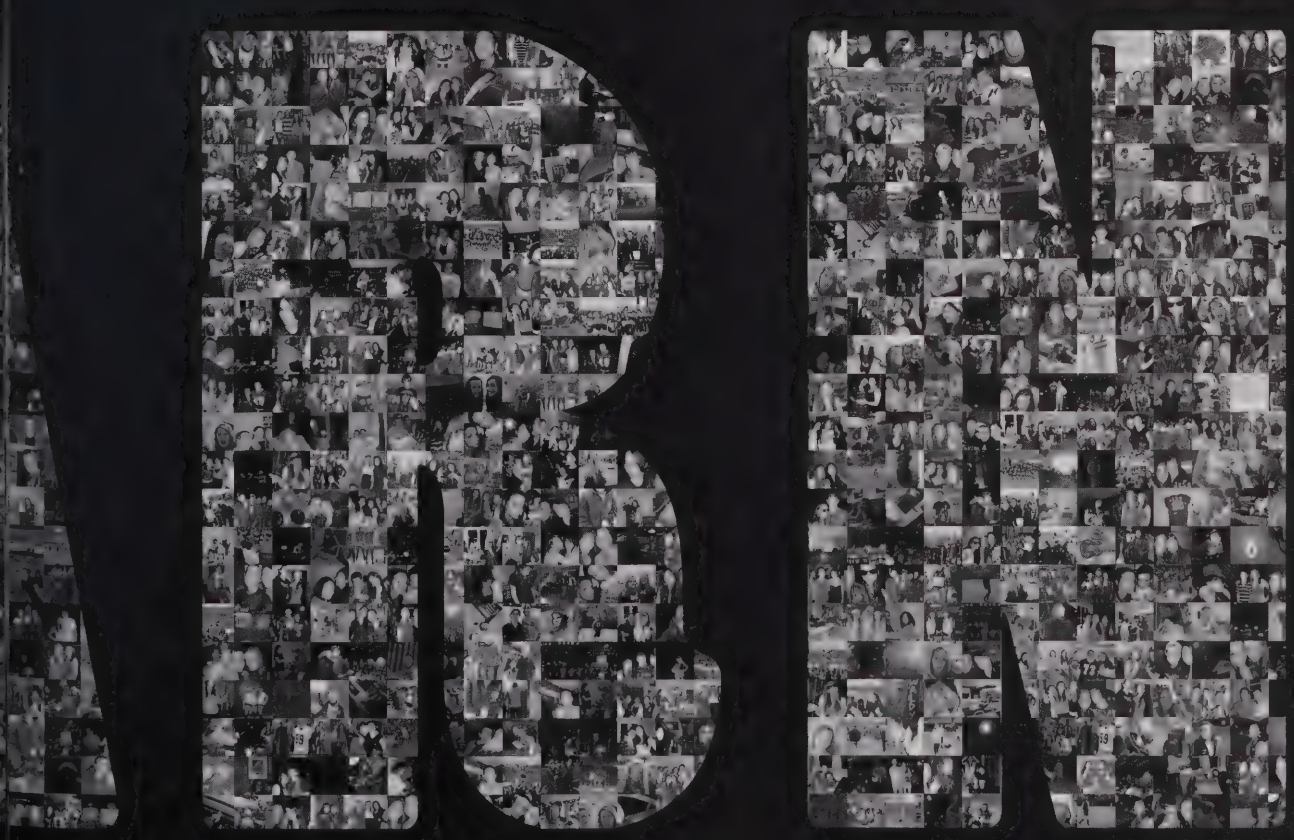

LEA

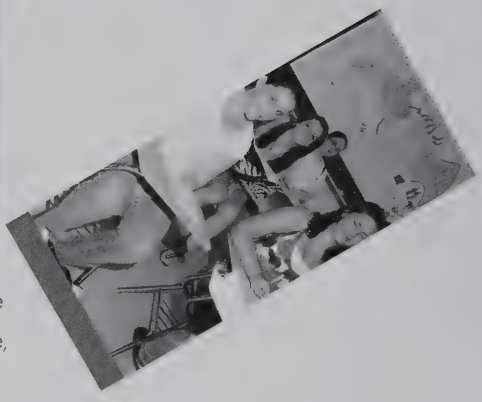

The student involvement at MHS is what makes our school unique. With so many clubs and extracurricular activities, there is always something to get involved in. On top of the hard work students put into clubs, they still manage to excel in academics as well.

We love to learn.

"If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader."

- John Quincy Adams

MHS CLUBS

MHS, without a doubt, has incredibly involved students. It seems like every year we are coming up with new and innovative ways to explore what we love and give back to our community. We celebrate our diversity with clubs like the Hispanic Club, the Asian Club, and the African American Culture Club. We promote peace and understanding with the Ambassadors to Change, and give back with Key Club. We focus on protecting our planet with Roots and Shoots. We educate students on healthy and safe choices with Students Against Destructive Decisions, and put out fantastic publications like the Mustang News and Lit Magazine... just to name a few. Best of all, if MHS doesn't offer a club for you, you can start your own!

2010 Clubs

We will strive for the local and school community to achieve a realistic impression of the Latino people and their contributions to society, along with an authentic view of their diversity.

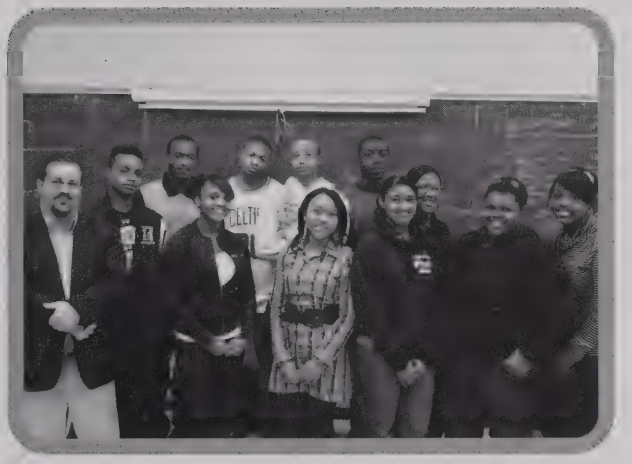

Hispanic Club

"The Hispanic Culture Club of Medford High School would like to provide the foundation for all students to learn more about the Spanish-speaking world."
- Senora Lepore

Black Culture

"We dream to celebrate the diversity of our black culture in the Halls of MHS, and we will!"

-Laurie Ulysse

The newly organized Black Culture club was formed this year and was proud to put together events such as the Martin Luther King Jr. exhibit and awareness for the earthquake disaster in Haiti.

ATC, advised by Ms. Boardman, is a club that focuses on empowering the students of MHS and helping us all to learn new ways to respect and honor each other. Each month they celebrate a new theme that reflects their goals and inspires others to do the same.

This year, the MHS Band had a successful year of playing at concerts, football games, and basketball games under the direction of Mr. John Feitor. The winter concert featured songs such as "At the Crossroads" and "Jubilance." During the football season, the band added to their already vast repitoire of songs, performing their versions of "Don't Fear the Reaper," "Satisfaction," and "Immigrant Song."

ORCHESTRA

The MHS Orchestra had yet another successful year of musicianship under the direction of Mr. Szykniej. Their winter concert attracted many guests and featured the Coldplay hit "Viva La Vida," as well as the classic "Winter Wonderland." The students' commitment was exceptional and the talent was extraordinary; especially impressive was junior violinist Emory Paine, who was invited to be a guest performer by the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

National Honors Society

The National Honor Society is made up of Medford High's most impressive seniors. The organization requires that its members are not only accomplished in their academics, but also display exceptional citizenship, leadership, and character. These students are resourceful, creative, unconventional and bold, and use these characteristics to help the local community and the world.

CHORUS

Under the leadership of Mr. Wray, the MHS Chorus had another great year of singing. Their repotoire included songs written in a number of different languages, as well as some old favorites - such as the Beach Boys' "Kokomo" and The Eagles' "Desperado." The Chorus class and the Chorus Club came together for concerts in the winter and the spring, and both were successful displays of the chorus members' hard work and dedication.

MUSTANG NEWS

The Mustang News has undergone great changes this year due to its switch from a paper to web-based system. After its last printed copy came out last fall, the Mustang News is taking on new publicity, being linked to the Medford Transcript and Boston Globe. This can only ensure that it will be viewed and appreciated by the whole Medford community.

Mr. Heinegg, Heidi Walsh, and Allison Goldsberry take a break to pose for a picture

Also, thanks to the help of the web editor Allison Goldsberry, the Mustang News is now learning the techniques of broadcast journalism, often using video to interview and seek highlights from the latest basketball games. Advising the staff is the ever-popular Mr. Heinegg who has put much dedication into the success of the paper. Seniors Barry Ebua and Heidi Walsh have also contributed enormously to the paper. Ebua has been the faithful sports broadcaster of MHS, while Walsh has served as the editor-in-chief for two years.

French Club

The French Club has worked hard this year with the help of advisor, Ms. Jaubert , and leadership of seniors such as Christelle Bataille, Ericson Theodat, Haley Brown, and President Brian Porreca. The seniors pictured above with Heidi Walsh participated in the club's first French fashion show.

Italian Club

In it's second year at Medford High School, the Italian club worked hard to bring Italian culture to our school. Ms. Pancheri works hard with officers Lisa DiVirgilio and Virginia McCart (above) to plan events throughout the school year.

Mock Trial

The mock trial team works hard each year to prepare for debates with local schools. The team's advisor, Mr. McMahon, studied law at Boston College and does his best to pass down his knowledge to his students. Senior Nima Jama actively participates in the club.

Science Club

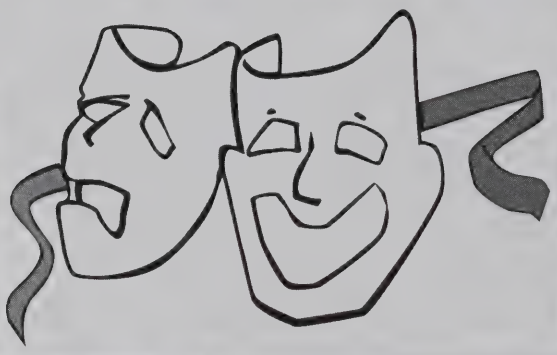

The Medford High School science team, advised by Mr. Lazzaro, enters local and regional science competitions sponsered by high schools and colleges in the Boston area. They had a successful year with the leadership of seniors Nima Jama, Nick Borges, Garish Sahore, Julia Abreha, Sam Fingerman, Eric Germann, and David Lee.

MHS Drama Club

Drama Club Advisor: Mr. Lewis

Freshman and junior English teacher Mr. Lewis took the helm of the Drama Club this year as the new club advisor. Lighthearted yet dedicated, he's kept the drama club going strong.

This year was one of progressive change for the Medford High Drama Club. Under the leadership of the club's new advisor, Mr. Lewis, and the experience of the student advisors, the club welcomed in dozens of first-time actors and actresses. Curious, budding thespians of all classes decided to join the club, resulting in the largest amount of new talent that the club has seen in years. The fall play, You Can't Take It with You, started the year off with plenty of laughs. Following closely after were the three hilarious one-act plays: Mirror, Mirror, An Actor's Nightmare, and The Brothers Grimm Spectaculathon. The year ended with the irreverent murder mystery musical, Drood.
It was a year of laughter, new friendships, and plenty of good theater.

Below: Senior Olivia Hegner (Ms. Kirby) is appalled by the bizarre nature of the Sycamore family.

Above: Senior Trey Granderson (Tony) and junior Emily Nixon (Alice) overcome all the odds by falling in love and bridging the gap between their families in the process.

It was a battle between business and pleasure in the Drama Club's fall play, You Can't Take It with You. Sparks fly when Alice, a child of the eccentric Sycamore family, falls in love with Tony Kirby, son of a prominent business man. Through wisecracking humor, xylophone music, ballet, and some Russian blintzes, the play left the audience with a new life philosophy: relax, have fun, and live for the moment.

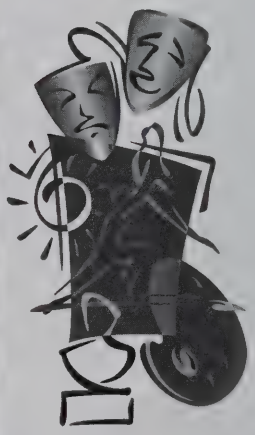

Above: The Sycamore family, along with the newly-relaxed Kirbys and the Grand Dutchess of Russia, sit in prayer before digging in to some blintzes.

One Act Plays

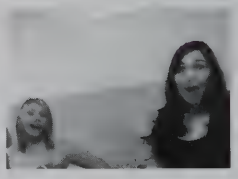

Mirror, Mirror

Directed by Emily Nixon

"Mirror, mirror, on the wall, who's the fairest of them all?" This question was answered in the form of the uproarious comedy, Mirror, Mirror. Following several generations of vain, egocentric, and very, VERY attractive princesses, the audience learned that beauty is only skin deep... thank God.

An Actor's Nightmare

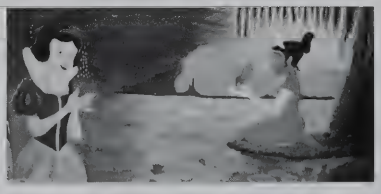

Directed by Jenn Christiansen

An Actor's Nightmare followed a young actor who suddenly found himself in the middle of three different plays - none of which he was prepared for. With sharp wit, the play left the audience both crying for and laughing at the hapless protagonist, as well as knowing just how potent cheap music can be.

Brothers Grimm Spectulathon

Directed by Tyler Rosati

Think it's impossible to perform all of Grimm's fairy tales in just one hour? Think again. Seven unbridled, raw, and goofy actors did just that in the wild, zany, and outright hilarious Brothers Grimm Spectaculaton. From Cinderella to Hansel and Gretel, the laughs never stopped.

Drood

Featuring the Music Hall Royale's premiere performance of:

The Mystery of Edwin Drood

It was a raucous and rowdy whodunit mystery in the Drama Club's spring musical, Drood. This play-within-a-play featured the Music Hall Royale's premiere performance of Charles Dickens's bizarre and uncompleted puzzle, The Mystery of Edwin Drood. The play featured multiple possible endings, and the audience was in charge of deciding who murdered young Edwin Drood, with plenty of laughs, suspense, and great music along the way.

Left: Mr. Wray (chorus teacher) and Ms. Grant (Andrews Middle School music teacher) worked together to direct the musical and bring together an amazing performance.

As the seniors graduate, the Class of 2011 become the leaders of the school. Just like years past, the new senior class and the underclassmen that follow will walk these halls with pride.

You Lead.

Junior Candids

The juniors enjoyed their first year as upperclassmen. Although life as juniors was stressful, especially while preparing for SAT's and studying for hours in preparation for AP tests, they managed to find time to have fun. With events such as Homecoming and Junior Prom, they enjoyed each other's company and made dozens of memoreis.

TO OUR FUTURE SENIORS

We would like to take the time to wish you the very best next year as the leaders of MHS. All of the time, effort, and thought you put into making junior year will certainly pay off in the months to come. We hope you can continue to show pride in our school and uphold the foundation that seniors before you have built. Good luck in all your endeavors and, most importantly, don't forget to enjoy the year while it lasts. It's your time now.

"The very least you can do in your life is to figure out what you hope for. And the most you can do is live inside that hope."

Candids FRESHMEN

After their first year at Medford High School, the class of 2013 have finally become familiar with their surroundings and love being Mustangs!

On the first day of freshman orientation, the class of 2013 were assigned their homerooms and given lockers and schedules. It was an awesome opportunity to get acquainted with the building and the school's clubs and sports. Talk about Lucky '13!

They're not that different from you, are they? Same haircuts. Full of hormones, just like you. Invincible, just like you feel.

The world is their oyster.

They believe they're destined for great things, just like many of you, their eyes are full of hope, just like you. Did they wait until it was too late to make from their lives even one iota of what they were capable? Because, you see gentlemen, these boys are now fertilizing daffodils.

But if you listen real close, you can hear them whisper their legacy to you.

Go on, lean in.

Listen, you hear it?

Carpe

Hear it?

Carpe, carpe diem.

Seize the day boys,

make your lives extraordinary.

A message from Headmaster Dr. Krueger

The 2009-2010 school year has been a banner year for Medford High School. This is in part attributable to the dedication of a talented faculty, the hard work of parents, and the commitment of a community that cares about children. However, to have a great school year and a great school, one needs to have an exceptional student body, and that can't happen unless the student body is led by an outstanding senior class. Although there are many ways to describe this year's graduating class, I think it's appropriate to depict them as a group of young people who have personified the mission of this school in a variety of ways.

For instance, in the words of the Medford High School mission statement, members of this year's graduating class have worked hard to "reach their potential as learners." The Class of 2010 can boast of MCAS scores superior to those of their peers statewide and has successfully met the challenges of state officials who have raised the bar in relation to high school graduation requirements. In addition, the Class of 2010 has built an impressive record with regard to Advanced Placement test scores and college acceptances.

Of course, members of this year's graduating class have embodied other elements in our mission statement, elements like being "actively involved in the life of the school." As an illustration, the participation of our seniors has been, in part, responsible for the renaissance of the drama program, which includes the fall play, the competition play, a night of one-act plays, and the annual musical comedy. Also, the athletic prowess of our seniors led their teams to round after round of tournament play in a variety of sports. And the sparkling personality of our seniors shone through during a series of enjoyable events, including the Homecoming Rally, Thanksgiving Pep Rally, Spirit Week, Talent Show 2010, Dodgeball Derby, Faculty-Varsity Basketball Classic, Boston Harbor Cruise, GSA Coffee House, Mr. MHS Pageant, Senior Luau, and Senior Prom.

Not only have our seniors been actively involved in the life of the school, but they have showed "responsibility and good citizenship," characteristics that are also inextricably linked to our school's mission. As one case in point, this year's altruistic graduates have led the school in fundraising for Haitian relief efforts and have organized other events to help those in need. And this year's graduates have shown impeccable conduct in the classrooms and corridors of MHS and have been excellent role models for our underclassmen throughout the building.

Of all the qualities that comprise the mission of our school, perhaps one of the most important is promoting "respect for diversity," and no class has ever done more to achieve that goal than the Class of 2010. Members of this year's senior class have not only exhibited exceptional character in personally following the school rules that are aimed at fostering tolerance and respect, but, even more importantly, have also showed courage and leadership in making sure that others around them hold to the same high standards.

For all of these reasons and many more, I extend my most heartfelt congratulations and thanks to the Class of 2010!

Paul H. Krueger, Ed. D.
Headmaster

A message from Superintendent Roy Belson

Congratulations on the attainment of your Medford High School diploma. You have earned it and you have a right to be proud of your achievements to date. The key question, however, is what you will do with your pride. Will it be an arrogant obstacle to your future development or will it be the foundation of confidence leading to personal growth and societal contribution. Essentially, what will be your attitude toward your future life? Will you see the glass as half full or half empty?

Nobel Prize-winning author George Bernard Shaw insightfully observed, "you are the window through which you must see the world." How clean and how big will your window be? Will you see life's opportunities or will you see a foggy landscape? American philosopher and psychologist William James wrote "The greatest discovery of my generation is that man alters his life simply by altering his attitude of mind."

It is up to you to build upon your education at Medford High School. Your attitude going forward will make all the difference in the world.

Best wishes for future health, happiness, and prosperity.

Roy E. Belson
Superintendent of Schools

A message from William Mahoney...

On behalf of the administration and faculty at the Medford Vocational Technical High School, I extend my warmest congratulations to the Class of 2010 upon your graduation from Medford High School. Your hard work and accomplishments during your four-year matriculation have provided you with the foundation to pursue future endeavors.

The experiences each of you has gleaned during your tenure in high school will have relevance in your decision-making process for years to come. Unique circumstances will require each of you to delve into your wealth of knowledge and personal encounters in order to turn negative situations into positive outcomes. Yes, you will encounter situations that at the initial point of contact will seem insurmountable. When that happens, I feel confident that each of you will rise to the occasion with the confidence of knowing how to handle the situation and resolving it to your satisfaction.

Life, as we know it, is guided by goals achievements and accomplishments to be pursued in our lifetime. I encourage each of you to establish meaningful and worthwhile goals in light of your ability and willingness to achieve them. Goals without commitment and personal sacrifice will be nothing more than whimsical and wishful thinking, which will have no lasting, results. In order to fully realize your established priorities in life, direction will be needed to find that elusive pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

The future is yours to conquer and to enjoy with family and friends. The open-minded person will view the future and all that it offers, as a challenge to improve the quality of life. I strongly urge each of member of the Class to seek the best the future has to offer. By doing this, you will experience a lifetime of excitement and newfound happiness at the turn of every corner.

In closing, I should like to leave the Class of 2010 with a thought expressed by the technological genius, folk hero, and philanthropist Henry Ford, "Anyone who stops learning is old, whether at twenty or eighty. Anyone who keeps learning stays young. The greatest thing in life is to keep your mind young....."
